This club is made for shooters. We want all to enjoy it. Come and visit us.

Our Ralph Dunn Range is located near the Halifax International Airport, in Devon on the Old Guysborough Road, 4 KM past the Airlanes Golf Course.

Besides regular house league shoots, there is plenty of action for individuals. We conduct small bore and centre fire league shoots throughout the winter and spring and we also conduct various matches such as IPSC, small bore rifle, black powder and Cowboy Action Shooting.

To become a member: Fill in the application form and REMIT WITH YOUR FIRST YEAR's DUES PLUS THE FIRST YEAR's INDUCTION FEE. Interact EMT is a payment option – send the funds to atlanticmarksmen@gmail.com - if a password is required, use "atlanticmarksmen" Send a scanned copy of your application form to the same email address. Your application will be processed promptly and you will be notified with a target goal of 2 weeks turn around time. New shooters must complete the club's introductory safety course within the next three times it is conducted.

If you fail to complete the course, you will not be granted membership and your application fees will be returned. Applicants with suitable previous experience (e.g. IPSC Black Badge course, 2 years membership at another gun club, etc.) may be waived the requirement to complete the introductory course. Proof must be included with your application.

After 3 months of safe and responsible probationary membership, the Board will review your file/application to issue your permanent membership card.
